

Vaccination motivations

Take up of the COVID-19 vaccine in the future

72% said they will take up the offer of the COVID-19 vaccination in future

For those who said this, the main reasons were:

To protect myself

To protect others

17% said they were not sure they would take up the offer of the COVID-19 vaccination in future

For those who said this, the main reasons were:

I don't think the vaccine would be effective at stopping me catching COVID-19

I am worried about short-term side effects of the vaccine

12% said they will decline the offer of the COVID-19 vaccination in future

For those who said this, the main reasons were:

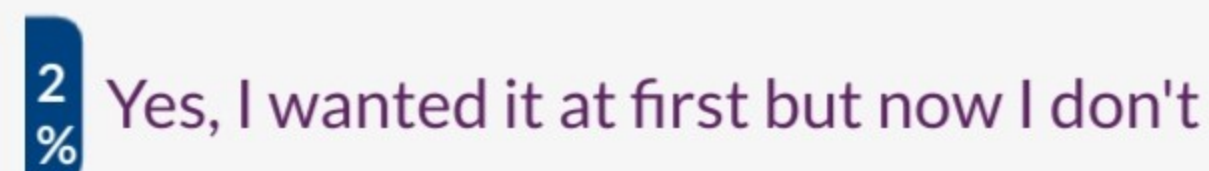

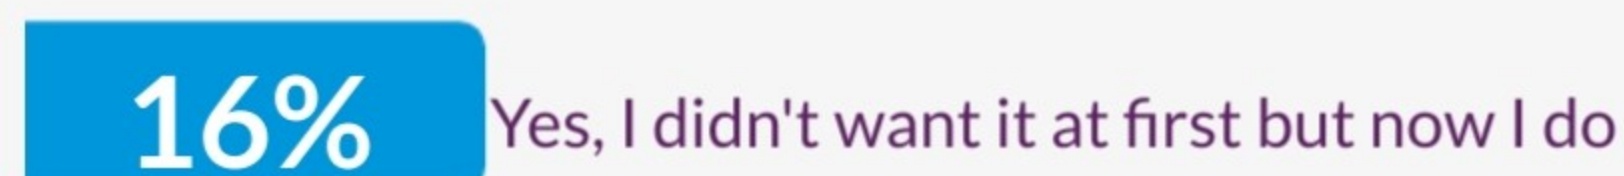

I am worried about long-term side effects of the vaccine

I believe I am unlikely to become seriously unwell with COVID-19

Change in attitudes towards the COVID-19 vaccine

Has your decision about getting the COVID-19 vaccine changed over time?

Impact of COVID-19 vaccination on attitudes towards other vaccinations

More or less likely to take up the offer of other vaccines, for example flu or childhood vaccinations

More Likely 37%
No Difference 56%
Less Likely 7%

More or less likely to encourage family and friends to take up other vaccines, for example flu or childhood vaccinations

More Likely 42%
No Difference 51%
Less Likely 7%