

NHSScotland Climate Emergency and Sustainability Strategy

Concerns about Climate Change

Climate Change Threat

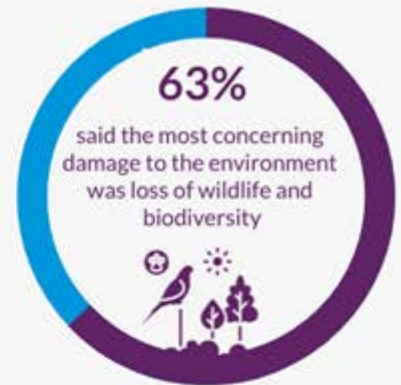

said climate change is a fair or great deal of threat to their health personally said climate change is a fair or great deal of threat to their family's health said climate change is a fair or great deal of threat to the health of the citizens' of Scotland

Responsibility and priority around climate change in NHSScotland

75%

agreed or strongly agreed that the NHS has a responsibility to reduce its impact on climate change and the environment

81%

agreed or strongly agreed that patients have a responsibility to help the NHS to reduce its impact on climate change and the environment

55%

agreed or strongly agreed that the NHS should make reducing its impact on climate change and the environment one of its top priorities

What would you be prepared to do to help NHSScotland reduce climate change

94%

would return unused medicines or empty inhalers to the pharmacy for reuse or disposal

97%

would return medical equipment that was no longer needed to be reused

Adverse weather concerns affecting NHSScotland services have had adverse weather ever prevent them or someone they care for, from being able to access a NHSScotland service

Net Zero

44%

were aware that the NHS aims to be Net Zero

80%

support or strongly support NHSScotland's policy to become net zero